Notice

Regarding Hall Test and Crash Course

19th March, 2020

This is to notify to students of CAP II and CAP III level that scheduled hall test on 21st March, 2020 has been cancelled considering the precautions taken not to be interacted with coronavirus disease (COVID-19). Further, scheduled crash courses, remaining hall test and other students' activities will also not be conducted until further notice. It has been decided considering the report of World Health Organization (WHO) and recent notice of Government of Nepal not to conduct any types of gathering events. The best way to prevent illness is to avoid being exposed to the virus. Hence, all students are notified to stay aware and be protective against COVID-19.
